

WBA and several bankers met with Rep. Jim Sensenbrenner last week to discuss the top issues for Wisconsin bankers. Regulatory burden, QM rules, flood insurance premiums, credit union taxation, tax reform, GSE reform and patent trolls were all addressed. WBA thanked Rep. Sensenbrenner for signing on to a letter from Rep. Shelley Moore Capito (R-WV). The letter had been sent to CFPB requesting a one-year delay in QM implementation. Pictured (left to right): David Schuelke, Spring Bank, Brookfield; Rose Oswald Poels, WBA, Madison; Rep. Sensenbrenner; Jay McKenna, North Shore Bank, Brookfield; and Joe Fazio, Commerce State Bank, West Bend.